INDEX TO VOLUME XII.

A

Absolute Magnitude of Stars, Means for Obtaining Directly, 327.

Amateur Observers and Observations, A Few Notes on, W. F. Denning, 157.

American Astronomical Society, The Twenty-second Meeting of, R. E. De Lury, 381.

Annual Meeting, Report of, 98.

Annual At Home, A. F. H., 109.

Assistant Chief Astronomer, 249.

Astronomers in Time of War, 27.

Astronomical Notes J. R. C., 25, 71, 118, 180, 238, 326, 374, 418, 472, 524.

Astronomy: A Cultural Avocation, Albert D. Watson, 81.

Astronomy in April, A. R. Hassard, 214.

Atmosphere, Why Generally Unsaturated, 240.

Aurora, The, W. J. Humphreys, 475.

Aurora of April 5th, 1918, 248.

Aurora Borealis, 238, 250.

B

Barnard, Edward Emerson, 76.

Burrows, F., Verses to Andrew Elvins, 532.

C

Cannon, J. B.: The Orbit of the Spectroscopic Binary Boss 3138, 92; A Note on the Spectrum of Lightning, 95; The Orbit of Boss 1082, 210.

Campbell, J. W., The Deviations of Falling Bodies, 202.

Chant, C. A., The Variable Star W. Virginis, 47; The Solar Eclipse of June 8, 1918; Observations at Matheson, Colorado, 339; Review of Publications, 232, 514.

Comets, The Origin of, 422.

Crommelin, A. C. D., Are the Spiral Nebulæ External Galaxies? 33.

D

Daylight Saving in Canada, 123, 477.

Death of Alexander Laing, 32.

Death of Astronomers, 78.

Death of Dr. L. G. Pearce, 478.

Death of Mr. Andrew Elvins, 478.

De Lury, R. E.: The Twenty-second Meeting of the American Astronomical Society, 381; Simultaneous Variations in Solar Radiation and Spectroscopic Determinations of Solar Rotation, 437; Spectroscopic Measurements of the Solar Rotation at the Equatorial Limbs and at Points Midway Between Them and the Centre of the Solar Disc, 442.

Denning, W. F., A Few Notes on Amateur Observers and Observations, 157.

Determination of Stellar Distances, Sir F. W. Dyson, 195.

Deviations of Falling Bodies, J. W. Campbell, 202.

Discovery and Investigation, Sir Dugald Clerk, 118.

Distances of Two Star Clusters, W. H. Pickering, 225.

Distorted Solar Halos, A. F. Hunter, 1.

Diurnal Changes of the Earth's Magnetism, S. Chapman, 184.

Dodge, G. Blanchard The Geodetic Comparator of the Dominion Lands Survey, 271.

Dyson, Sir F. W., The Determination of Stellar Distances, 195.

E

Earthquake Records at Toronto and Victoria, B.C., J. Y., 22, 68, 115, 178, 237, 319, 372, 416, 468, 522.

Earth and Population, The, Otto Klotz, 11.

Earth's Magnetism, The Diurnal Changes of the, 184.

Eclipse, June 8, 1918, The Total Solar, R. M. Motherwell, 160.

Eclipse of the Sun, June 8, 1918, C. A. C., 332, 339; "Shadow Bands" at the Total, 377.

Eclipses of the Near Future, Total Solar, 472.

Ecliptic, Obliquity of the, 374.

Electron, Theory of the, 71.

Epicentres for 1916, Location of, E. A. Hodgson, 251.

F

Falling Bodies, The Deviations of, J. W. Campbell, 202.

Franklin, A. V., The Moon and the Glacial Period, 450.

G

Galaxies, Are the Spiral Nebulæ External? A. C. D. Crommelin, 33.

Geodetic Comparator of the Dominion Lands Survey's Laboratory, The, G. Blanchard Dodge, 271.

Gift, A Handsome, 79.

Glacial Period, The Moon and the, A. V. Franklin, 450.

Globular Discharge of Lightning, 530. 530.

Graham, T. S. H., Measurement of Radial Velocities of Stars by Means of the Objective Prism Spectrograph, 129.

Gravitation and Relativity, 181.

Hypothesis to Account for the Spectral Conditions of the Stars, C. D. Perrin, 239.

J

Jackson, W. E. W., The Montreal Centre of the R.A.S.C., 453.

Journal of the Astronomical Society of India, 27.

Jupiter and Other Things, Venus, A. R. Hassard, 363.

K

Klotz, Otto, The Earth and Population, 11; Locating Sub-Marine Faults, 57; Observatories in Canada, 217; Light Pressure, 357.

L

Light Pressure, Otto Klotz, 357.

Light to Health, Relation of, 474.

Lightning, A Note on the Spectrum of, J. B. Cannon, 95.

Lightning, Globular Discharge of, 530.

Limitation of the Stellar Method, F. H. Scares, 326.

Liquid Oxygen as an Explosive, 76.

Location of Epicentres for 1916, E. A. Hodgson, 251.

Locating Sub-Marine Faults, Otto Klotz, 57.

M

Magnetic Observations, W. E. W. J., 24, 70, 116, 175, 236, 322, 370, 413, 466, 520.

Magnetic Storm of March 7, 1918, W. E. W. J., 176.

Mandeville Station, The, 242.

Mars, 250, 474; A Study in, 186.

Mars With a Small Telescope, A. F. Miller, 191.

Measurement of Radial Velocities of Stars by Means of the Objective Prism Spectrograph, T. S. H. Graham, 129.

Measurement of the Proper Motions of Stars by Spectroscopic Methods, 326.

Meetings of the Society. At Ottawa, 62; at Toronto, 17, 61, 98, 169, 229, 308, 456, 511.

Meteor, A Brilliant, 338; A Bright, in the Yukon, 190.
